

Key Principles of HKFM

At HKFM, we embrace a safe environment with mutual respect and self-discipline. We promote respect for one's self, one's opponent, the instructors, the weapons, and the tradition itself, as well as promoting safety.

All coach at HKFM have highest regards to the Code of Ethics and Conduct, and we are the ONLY club in Hong Kong have all the coach received Certificate for Child Safeguarding Training with Against Child Abuse Association in Hong KONG.

Fencing by its very nature teaches sportsmanship, resilience, and mental toughness.

The heart of HKFM is our students. Following our safety guidelines our students and instructors can create a safe, fun learning environment.

All students and their family are expected to:

- Behave professionally and display courtesy at all times.
- Show respect for coaches and peers during classes, lessons, and tournaments.
- Demonstrate good sportsmanship and team spirit
